PLACEMENT:

Student placement is determined by comprehension and production tests given prior to the start of classes. LCI administers its placement test free of charge to those who have an approved Application for Admission. Students who have taken an institutional TOEFL, IBT TOEFL, paper-based TOEFL, MELAB, IELTS, or exit proficiency test from an English Language Program within two months of beginning courses at LCI may submit test results for placement purposes.

TESTING—COURSE COMPLETION:

In-house proficiency testing is given to all students at the end of each term. Level advancement decisions are based primarily on test results.

The institutional TOEFL is administered on the last day of each session. All registered high intermediate and advanced LCI students are eligible to take the examination at no cost. Seating is limited.

CERTIFICATES:

Upon completion of the program, LCI issues, upon request, a certificate of attendance and/or completion for LCI's courses for students in good standing.

SUPPORT SERVICES:

- Immigration and visa assistance for F students
- Counseling for academic placement and admission
- Individualized Learning Plan for instructional support
- Information on public transportation
- Extracurricular activities

HEALTH INSURANCE:

Medical insurance is strongly recommended for all immigrant and non-immigrant students in the United States. LCI has information about medical coverage for students and their dependents.

HOUSING:

LCI does not have housing facilities. Students are responsible for arranging their own housing accommodations and meals.
